NEW YORK CAN HAVE VICE PRESIDENCY.

Said Empire State Can Name Second Man on Ticket—Other Candidates.

CHICAGO, June 12.—(Special.)—It is certain that if New York makes a united effort to name the second man on the Republican ticket, the Empire State will succeed in landing him. There are three possibilities from New York, Governor Hughes, Cortelyou and Congressman Sherman. When Sherman arrived today he found a full-fledged boom in his behalf already started.

Perhaps the most active Vice Presidential headquarters is that of Governor Franklin Murphy of New Jersey. Big claims are being made. Murphy claims he will have 250 votes on the first ballot.

The latest boom to make its appearance is that of Frank P. Kellogg, the National Manufacturers Committee and one of the administration's "trust busters." A delegation of St. Paul and Minneapolis men today are studying a flood of stories about his availability.

The Taft people would undoubtedly like to have Senator Doolittle on the ticket, because he is conceded to have popularity and great abilities as a campaigner. But it seems he must be ruled out. It would involve too much sacrifice for him to resign his Senate seat and take the Vice Presidency.

Frank H. Hitchcock will be the next Chairman of the Republican National Committee in the opinion of politicians assembled here.

CHILDREN FIND CORPSE

Girl Sought Death Because Lover Was Unfaithful.

ERIE, Pa., June 12.—Because her love spurned her and believing that all pleasure in life had departed, pretty Gertrude Kendie, thirteen years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Kendie of West Sixth street, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. The girl committed the rash act in a field near Twelfth and Cranberry avenues some time Thursday night, but the body was not found until some children picking berries discovered it lying in a clump of bushes. Reside her body was a three-ounce bottle that had contained carbolic acid and a note saying her lover had forsaken her and she did not want to live any longer. The letters from her lover, who is a well-known young man in this city, were found near the body. In these he hinted that his affections for her had cooled.

MAKES FATAL SLIDE

Ballplayer Meets With Fatal Injury in Attempt to Score.

PUNASAWNEY, Pa., June 12.—With his neck broken and his head swinging from side to side, Frederick Lockard, twenty years old, walked from the baseball diamond to the grandstand and sat on a seat several minutes before he fell unconscious. None of his companions was aware of his probably fatal injury until he was taken to Dr. Grube's hospital here. Lockard, who was playing in a game between the Cubs and the Tigers of the City league, attempted to steal second base. As he dived to the sack Second Baseman Perry Dock caught the ball. Dock fell on his knee over the base, catching Lockard's head as the latter slid in. It is thought that had the injured man been kept still after the accident he could have been saved, as the spinal cord remained uninjured when the spine snapped. His walking to the grandstand caused the broken bones to sever the cord.

ADVERTISING DOES PAY.

This Has Been Proven Again by the Success of Mace & Co. Sale.
The sale conducted this week by Mace & Co. has been a tremendous success, due principally to judicious advertising. Goods to the value of thousands of dollars have been sold and hundreds of dollars have been saved by the people on account of getting genuine bargains. In the language of the head of the firm himself, never before was there such a gratifying demonstration of the truth of the statement that advertising pays. It has been proven that where real bargains are offered the people are awake to take advantage of the offers.

Real Dry Neighborhood, This.
People, Ill., June 12.—Dr. Roy Richards of Hopedale, Ill., was fined $20 and costs in a Pekin justice court for violation of the dry ordinance of Hopedale. The physician prescribed beer for Mrs. Grolamer. She was not able to obtain the beverage because of the prohibition law. The physician ordered the beer from another city. On delivery the physician received for the package and took it to the patient. Some neighbors saw the transaction and filed a complaint. The doctor entered a plea of guilty.

Baseball Challenge.
The Westmoreland Grocery Company's baseball team challenges the Wright-Metzel baseball team to a game to be played next Friday. The Westmoreland sluggers are aware of the fact that a Wright-Metzel slugging attack pitched for the "Lanky Lion" champion, but they feel that they will be able to touch him up for a few home runs.

WORLD PEACE MOVE.

SCHOOL PUPILS AS WRITERS.

Plan Proposed For Making Friends of All Nations—Youngsters of Japan and America to Begin Movement That It Is Hoped May End Wars.

A movement for international peace was recently launched at Stamford, Conn., by Wilson L. Gill, L. L. D., president of the American Patriotic League, in which President Roosevelt, former President Cleveland and many other prominent men are interested and the offices of which are at 10 East Twentieth street, New York. After the close of the Spanish war Mr. Gill was general supervisor of moral and civic training in the public schools of Cuba under commission from the United States.

Truly the plan is to establish correspondence between children of the public schools in the United States and the school children in foreign countries with the idea of making them better acquainted. It is proposed first to make the experiment with the school children of Japan and those of the United States. Professor Makayama of the National college at Tokyo, Japan, who is now in New York on a commission from the Japanese government studying new educational methods, has been in communication with Mr. Gill looking to the establishment of school children in Japan.

Mr. Gill is confident Professor Makayama will endorse the correspondence plan. Besides, he says, he has friends of influence in the educational world of Japan upon whom he may rely. He has no doubt of the future of the movement begun in Stamford by the formation of Stamford School Children's Chapter of the American Protective League, with Superintendent of Schools E. F. Willard as president.

Representatives of foreign governments have approved the plan. One who has given it enthusiastic endorsement is Ernesto Nelson of 665 West One Hundred and Fifteenth street, New York city, special commissioner of education for the Argentine Republic.

Mr. Gill says difference in languages will not be insurmountable.

"The movement is political rather than educational," said Mr. Gill the other night, "and I believe it is one of the greatest political movements ever launched. The people of Japan are ranking under the belief that they were deprived of the fruits of their war with Russia by interference of the United States in bringing that war to an end. The Japanese government is friendly, but the government is representative, and the people may change its officers at any time.

"The only safety, then, is to make the Japanese people realize that we are their friends; that we desire to be friendly with them and expect the same treatment from them. We hope to get that friendship established by correspondence between the children of the two nations. If we can make the children of the two nations friends it is safe to say there will be no war so far as Japan and the United States are concerned."

How and When to Start.

There are a few plain facts about how and when to start which it would be worth a man's while to keep in mind even when well. If you are in a hurry, act lightly. There is no virtue in plunging down a large meal just because it is meatless. While the mind is actively engaged in the details and responsibilities of business the digestive apparatus is in no condition to undertake heavy work. The blood supply is drained off elsewhere, giving all the contribution it can to the brain, and a quantity of food be taken in it, simply remains undigested in the stomach. Worry, unsteady mind, low spirits, all tend to delay or to stop the activity of the alimentary canal. Students who go to hard head work immediately after meals often suffer from indigestion. So do letter carriers and other people whose meals are followed by prolonged physical exertion. Indeed, any kind of effort which forces the blood flow away from the alimentary region is injurious after hearty eating—Dr. Gulick in World's Work.

One of the latest novelties in a state pin which can be worn as a scarf or as a lapel pin or as a charm for fob or other watch chain. The idea is that every man in proud of the state he was born in or that of his adoption and that he would like to show his loyalty by wearing a state pin. Each of these pins is in outline a map of some state, whose name is stamped upon it, and the pin shows also by colored lines the rivers and by dots the capital and the principal cities. These state pins are sold at from 10 cents upward. You can buy one of these pins with a diamond set in that part of it where the capital is located if you want.

State Pins.

"I have leased my rice farm in Texas to a Jap," remarked T. M. Walker of New Mexico, in a recent issue. "There is some local feeling because the Japs are taking the rice lands thereabout. But I can see no reason for refusing to accept his offer, inasmuch as the Japs can raise twice as much rice with the same soil as our people can. They understand rice culture as no American does. This particular Jap is young and rich and comes with ample resources to do business. I understand that as rapidly as they can acquire leases or can purchase the Japs are taking the rice lands."

Why do you delay getting a McDougall Kitchen Cabinet?

You Can Save Half

the time you now spend in the kitchen by getting a McDougall—no more trotting from table to pantry, to cupboard and back to the table, dozens of times each meal. Spend the time resting or calling or doing things which you now have no time to do.

One Kitchen Cabinet

Is not as good as another and no cabinet will render you as good service as the McDougall. If it would, housewives who unknowingly bought the "just-as-good" kind without investigating the McDougall would not be throwing them out and putting in the Genuine Improved McDougall now.

The Real Cost of the McDougall is small compared with the results it gives—it will soon save enough food supplies to pay for itself and do it over and over again, because a McDougall lasts a lifetime in perfect condition and is not discarded after a short period of usage.

There is no plausible reason why you should not get a McDougall at once.

Come in and let us show you the latest designs—what they are like—what they will do. Your coming to see will not obligate you to buy.

ACCIDENTS.

RAILWAY AND OTHERWISE.

The hand-on collision on the Fayette county branch this week and the escape of the passengers with slight injuries lends confirmation to the statement of an insurance man to the effect that there is nothing more serious than the common belief that one is more liable to accidents while traveling than when living the simple life in the confines of the home.

"As a matter of cold fact," he says, "statistics show that accident insurance companies pay more losses to people who get injured in their own homes or on their premises than they do to people hurt in railway accidents. Insurance companies pay more money to people who get hurt hanging pictures or taking stoves apart than they do to the victims of head-on collisions. It sounds strange, but it's the truth. In fact, most companies now pay double indemnity when the insured is injured in a railway accident."

The railroad wreck of the ocean disaster is heralded all over the world, but the thousands of minor accidents, fatalities though they be, are never recorded beyond the limited circle in which they happen. It is, therefore, quite possible that this insurance expert speaks by the book, and that we are just as safe on a good railway or trolley line as we are at home.

Most of us have always been willing to take a chance when he had the price.

THE DEVASTATION OF THE DENUDED HILLS.

Slowly but certainly the country is awakening to the fearful price posterity will have to pay for the destruction of our forests unless we set about at once to repair our almost criminal folly. The Pittsburgh Sun says:

Gravel and sand are reported to be making the raising of the wickets in the dam a matter of peculiar difficulty. The heavy floods of the winter and early spring season have left their burden of gravel on all these comparatively puny attempts to preserve a navigable stage of water. The rapid fluctuations of the river levels during this remarkably rainy month just passed show how seriously the forest problem is becoming evident. Evidently reservoirs for impounding the waters and dams for impeding their too rapid flow will be useless, or quickly made so, until the washing away of the surface soil and the consequent rapid erosion of the stream beds is prevented. If the land were in proper condition to receive and retain water, much of this which is now far on its way to the Gulf would yet be seeping into the hillside feeding the deeper springs, and the glades would abound with murmurs of the shady brooks rejoicing in the slowly given up waters.

Thus we can keep the water longer where it first falls and the soil from being carried off by every shower there is no use of any other river improvement. We shall have, however, to look forward to a surrender of the river basin by agriculture to forestry and intelligent lumbering before we can hope for anything permanent in the way of relief from floods or the economic use of our waterways as efficient routes of transportation. The farmer ought to be willing to give up and get out of the hills. He is facing conditions that are growing steadily worse for him. Gallies gash and ruin his hillside fields, and their fertility rapidly runs off. The same energy he puts into hill farming would in land properly adapted to agriculture yield a larger return and he will be in economic harmony where he is now only an alder.

We can raise trees, and after these produce water power from reservoirs in areas where now poor tillage and rocks and stumps are all that give us small agricultural returns. These bleak, ugly, scrubby desert uplands will again become beautiful and profitable. Nature and science will work hand in hand to restore and produce treasures greater than those so ruthlessly destroyed by the lumberman's devastating axe and the farmer's disturbing plow.

There is but one way to remedy this serious and threatening situation. We cannot ask the owners of timber land to cease lumbering operations and donate their forests to the public. The public, represented by the government of the States and the Nation, must step in and buy the forest lands. Not only that but they must also buy a portion of the denuded lands and reforest them. This duty must no longer be delayed. Too long it has been procrastinated. What the situation needs is action.

THE PROMPT ELECTION OF TEACHERS.

The haste with which the corps of instructors for Conneltsville's schools have been and are being chosen may be regarded by thoughtless persons as premature selection, but it is not.

The applications for the positions are always in by the time the directors meet for organization and justice as well as expediency demands that they be passed upon promptly.

Connellsville borough pays liberal wages to its teachers and in consequence it always has plenty of material to select from. It is only just to the applicants that their cases be passed upon promptly, so that if they are not successful they may have an opportunity of presenting their claims to another desirable district.

A long-deferred and late selection by a district like ours would be a mistaken policy from any point of view. The Conneltsville directors are following a well settled rule with regard to the selection of teachers, a policy that experience has shown to be wise.

TARR, June 13.—If the present plans that are now on foot materialize successfully, our little village will in the very near future be boasting of a brass band. There is plenty of material here if they can just get together, and promptly organize. They are now getting things in shape for the completion of plans. Those interested are holding a festival at the K. of P. and K. G. hall tonight. The cause is a worthy one and should be given the support of the townspeople.

DUNN'S CASH STORES.

129, 131 and 133 N. Pittsburg Street CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Western Pennsylvania.—Showers Saturday; Sunday, showers and cooler; fresh south to southwest winds, becoming northwest Sunday.

June Business.

How much of your June buying do you intend to do at this store? As much as the store deserves? That's all we ask. If we can sell you better goods, give you better service and save you some money then we deserve your business and we do not ask it on any other grounds. During this month of June we are going to make extra effort towards a larger June business. Have the goods here at prices to deserve this increased business and we ask you to come and investigate.

New Gingham.

A new lot of plaids and checks in an imported gingham to sell at 25 cents the yard. Especially plenty of the large brown and blue plaids. Patterns that have been scarce all season.

Women's Tan Hose at 25c

Assorted tan shades. Plain hose stockings. The very best 25 cent stocking we ever had to sell. Because of the quality of the stockings we have here this ought to be the place where you bought your stockings. Try it once.

Long Silk Gloves.

These we have to show you this week come in assorted browns, black and white. Pure silk and double knitted fingers. Priced at $1.75 the pair. No trouble to buy silk gloves at prices above and below this, but you will not get as good a glove at a less price and you'll get no better no matter how much more you pay.

Vudor Shades.

Stock getting down to where some stores are getting scarce. You are almost wasting your money buying the cheap porch shades. They are good for one season only, while a Vudor shade is with any kind of care almost indestructible. Take a look around at some of your neighbors' porches. Count a Vudor shade that's been in use for four or five seasons with a cheap shade that's been in use for a single season. You'll see that we sell no many Vudor shades.

Nemo Corsets.

For the stout woman who wants corset comfort there's no other corset that is made that is as comfortable as the Nemo. Especially designed to give corset comfort. Two styles that we call particular attention to, 312 and 314. Only difference is that 312 is for long waist and 314 for the short waist, both priced at $2.00.

Our Bargain Tables.

Back in the clock room we've two tables filled with bargains. Keep them filled all the time. For this week we've some more of those skirts and gowns at $1.00. Goods that would regularly sell for more money than this. Take a look at them. You'll be surprised at the values you'll find on these tables.

Ribbon Values.

Some special values in 25 cent ribbon to show this week. Plain wide (extra) ribbon. All pure silk. All the wanted shades and a better ribbon than you have been accustomed to buy for anything like this price.

WEDDING CARDS AT SCOTSDALE.

Another June Marriage Is the Wiley-Loucks on June 24.

WILL BE A HOME EVENT.

Bishop Dubs Will Speak at the Y. M. C. A. Meeting on Sunday Afternoon. Children's Day at the Morgan Sunday School.

SCOTSDALE, June 13.—Invitations have been sent out by Abraham S. Loucks, of Chestnut street, for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Ruth, and William Sampson Wiley of Philadelphia, which is set for Wednesday, June 24, at the home of the bride's father at 5 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. J. M. Zimmers, a sister of the groom to be, will entertain at cards in honor of Miss Loucks on next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The couple are popular young people of town, the groom being a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiley of Broadway, and now engaged in business in Philadelphia. The bride to be is a graduate of the Scottsdale High School, the Western Pennsylvania Classical and Scientific Institute at Mt. Pleasant and a student at Wellesley College.

Children's Day at Morgan. Great preparations have been made for the celebration of Children's Day at the Morgan Union Sunday school at Morgan station. This school was organized there about a year ago by C. D. Hixson, A. E. Taylor and Jacob Kooser of Jacobs Creek, the last named now being superintendent. The school has grown rapidly and a very pretty and interesting program of recitations, drills and music has been arranged for, the services taking place at 7:30 in the evening. William Beals of here will have charge of the organ and Albert Beals will play the clarinet.

Scottsdale Man's Furnace. Chairman F. J. O'Connor of the Sanitation and Garbage Committee of Council spent Friday in McKeesport examining the workings of the garbage furnace in that city, a furnace which is the invention of and was built by William K. Herbert, a former Scottsdale mason, and a brother of A. H. and C. S. Herbert of town. The furnace has been in operation quite successfully for several months. Scottsdale is going to build one this summer and investigation is being made of the different patterns, not many designs of these furnaces being in use, although great many of the few kinds built are in operation.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting. The local Y. M. C. A. has engaged Bishop R. Dubs of the United Evangelical church to address the open air meeting in Loucks Park at 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Bishop Dubs is here speaking at the open air revivals of his church at the park and is commended as a lively and thoughtful speaker. An orchestra and male quartet will assist at the meeting in the afternoon. At the street meeting on Pittsburgh street near Broadway F. B. Williams, the evangelist, is the speaker this evening.

To Sail for Europe. Through the Byrns agency George Welbel has secured a ticket for Paris, and will sail on the Kronprinz from New York on Tuesday next, landing at Paris and going from there to Paris, Germany. Mr. Welbel is a brother of Mrs. N. Kromer and has been residing at Alverton for some time.

Chief Mitchell in Town. Chief J. W. Mitchell of the Connellsville fire department was in town on Friday evening visiting the local fire department, which he complimented on its equipment and quarters. Mr. Mitchell is making an inspection of the different towns and their departments and measuring the hose fittings with a view to getting Connellsville's hose interchangeable with any of the others.

Getting a New Broom. Street Commissioner T. B. May has shipped the worn-out broom of the street sweeper to a firm in Philadelphia to have the broom refilled and to get a new one. The present broom was purchased about a year ago and the use of it on the streets has worn it down to the fittings. The necessity of a new broom is much felt by the Commissioner.

U. B. Pulpit Supply. In the absence of Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Williamson, who sailed for Europe this week, Rev. J. S. Hayes of the Emerson United Brethren church will fill the pulpit of the United Brethren church tomorrow.

Building a New House. Contractor John Pyle is building a modern seven room cased-brick house on the East Home Place plan of lots. It will be a handsome residence when completed and is being built by Mr. Pyle for himself.

Two Parties Given. The Glee Club, an organization of young people, held a very pleasant and well attended party at the pretty country-home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sidaway, a mile west of town, last evening. The gathering enjoyed themselves very much with music and games and a plenty lunch was served. Another party in the country was the evening before, when a crowd of boys and girls were about the house of Joe Johnson, near Trent church, but an approaching storm held them up and they went to the house of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fretts, where they had a jolly time. The storm continued so long that they were unable to go to their original destination.
